

Assistant Professor (4 positions), Teacher Education
School of Education, University at Albany

The School of Education at the University at Albany is seeking four full-time Assistant Professors (tenure-track) to join a newly launched undergraduate teacher preparation program. We are currently seeking candidates with a strong commitment to teaching undergraduates and graduates enrolled in teacher preparation programs who will bring expertise in teacher education in elementary, secondary, special education, and/or a specific subject area (science, mathematics, literacy, social studies). The successful applicant will have an active research program and engage with colleagues whose research interests and scholarship span pre-K to post-graduate education and who prepare students to be innovative scholar-leaders.

A review of applications will begin on December 8.
